Regular giving

A monthly or regular gift is a kind and committed way to support people affected by leukaemia, MDS and MPN. Regular giving helps us plan our support services for the long-term future. So, we can be here whenever families need us.

Every regular donation adds up to make a big difference.

How your gift helps

- £3 a month could cover the cost of a patient booklet. Help provide clear and accurate information at a time of uncertainty.
- £5 a month could ensure Helpline calls are answered. Help connect a patient needing treatment advice with our friendly registered nurse.
- £10 a month could help fund our men's or bereavement support groups. Help run a special group bringing people affected by leukaemia together to share similar experiences.
- £20 a month could cover the cost of professional counselling sessions. Help give someone who is struggling a safe space to work through their emotions.

- It is simple to set up and change a regular donation at any time
- Your gift is taken automatically each month
- You will receive updates showing the difference your on-going support makes

Why The Chinery Family donate monthly

Kim and Roy Chinery with their grandchildren.

Our connection to Leukaemia Care goes back to 1989. Roy was diagnosed with Acute Myeloid Leukaemia (AML), which led to a bone marrow transplant in 1990. At the time, the charity's volunteer, Ann Ashley, was always around for us. She provided much needed emotional support. When Roy was diagnosed, our daughter was only seven, and our son, five. All Roy wanted was to live to see our children grow up, but happily we've ended up seeing them both get married. And the addition of five grandchildren, who adore him. Put simply, the support Leukaemia Care provided has stayed with us. It was very influential in Roy's recovery. Leukaemia Care were there for us at a time when we needed help. Now, with our donations each month, we are there for other families dealing with Leukaemia. We're helping to ease the emotional impact a diagnosis can often have.
